

Amending bail "Think Sheet"

---

| Information Needed   | Answer |
|--|--------|
| Your name  |        |
| Your date of birth   |        |
| the police "QP9" number, which is on the police materials. |        |
| The condition of bail you want to amend.                   |        |
| A copy of your bail undertaking.                           |        |
| The court your matters in.                                 |        |
| Your next court date.                                      |        |
| Who can change the condition and their contact details     |        |

| Why do you want the condition changed? |
|--|
|  |

| How will the change still give effect to the purpose of the condition? |
|--|
|  |

Example Draft format of the request

---

Dear [person who can change condition],

My name is [NAME (DOB:)]. My matters are next before the [COURT] on [DATE].

[X] condition of bail that may be varied by [X].

I would like to change condition [X] of my bail:

From: [CURRENT CONDITION]

To: [PROPOSED CONDITION]

Because [YOUR REASONS]

Thank you for considering the above, if you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

[YOUR NAME AND CONTACT DETAILS]

The obligatory disclaimer – Where we tell you what you already should know, this is not legal advice.

Here at Murray Torcetti Lawyers, we love nothing more than helping our clients navigate the legal system. But let's get one thing straight: this post is not legal advice.

So while we'll do our best to provide accurate information on how to amend a bail condition, please don't take anything we say as gospel. We're lawyers, not clairvoyants.

In all seriousness, if you're facing a legal issue, we highly recommend seeking the advice of a qualified solicitor. They'll be able to give you the personalized guidance you need to navigate the complexities of the legal system. And who knows, they might even have a better sense of humour than we do (though we find that hard to believe).

If you need help, give us a call – 07 5495 4209.